Dr. U. P. Shah, a leading authority on Western Indian Art and Jaina Iconography, will lecture Wednesday, April 11, 8:15 p.m. at The Cleveland Museum of Art on EARLY WESTERN INDIAN SCULPTURE.

Shah's talk will be concerned primarily with the early materials from Gujarat and Rajasthan which are not ordinarily discussed in histories of Indian art.

Deputy Director of the Oriental Institute in Baroda, India, Shah during the present year is Fulbright Visiting Research Professor at the University of Pennsylvania for South Asia Regional Studies.

The lecture will be held in the Museum Auditorium and is open free to the public.
